Our students have gone onto study a wide range of subjects for further education including Psychology, Sociology, Law, Economics, Criminology, Biology, Business Studies, Politics, Journalism, Philosophy and many more.

Sociology

Have you ever wondered why life is unfair? Why a certain gender or ethnicity is treated better than another? Why some people turn to crime and others don't? Why some people succeed in school and others don't? Then Sociology is the subject for you!

Sociology is the study of the society we live in, how it's organised, how it makes us who we are and how it affects our daily lives.

Sociology is considered a Humanities subject so if you can get a Grade 6 in English and History or Religious Studies then you are well suited to studying Sociology!

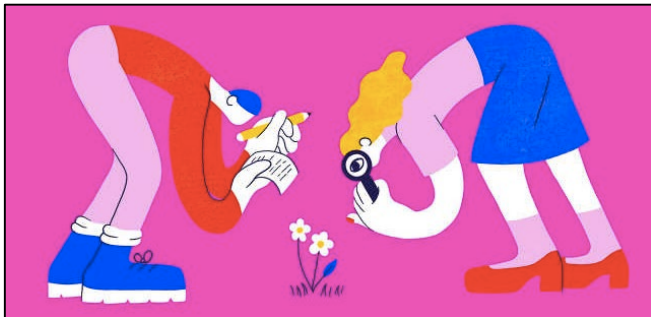

Year 12 Sociology Course Content

Topics

- Education
- Families & Households
- Research Methods

Research Methods

Sociologists conduct research on people!! You will learn how to conduct your own research.

Education

Have you ever wondered why you have to come to school? or why some genders or ethnicities perform better in school than others? Why have the government allowed some schools turn into academies?

Families & Households

What are the different types of family? Are some family types better than others? Can a couple be considered a family? What is the role of your family in your life?

Year 13 Sociology Course Content

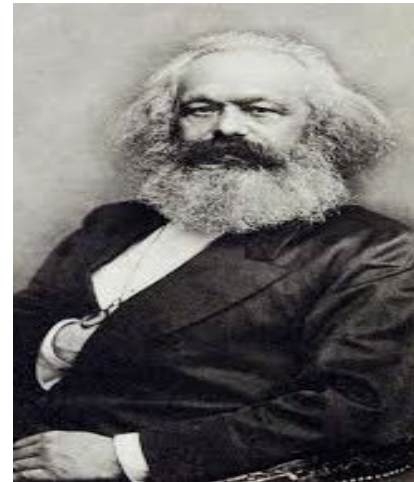

Crime & Deviance

Have you ever wondered why people commit crime and why others don't? Does ethnicity, gender or social class affect how likely someone is to commit a crime? How effective are current punishments of crime?

Sociological Theory

You may have heard of this man, his name is Karl Marx! He believes that society is unfair and unequal and that some people benefit more than others. His ideas are extremely controversial as some people believe this is a very negative view of society.

Topics

- Beliefs in Society
- Crime & Deviance
- Social Theory

Beliefs in society

How does religion influence society? Why are women more religious than men?
